

Reading a Picture

Paste Photo Here

Directions

Important information about a story can be gathered from photographs before you even begin to read the text.

Select a photo and paste it in the easel. Study the photo carefully before reading the text. List at least five things that you can infer from the photo. Based on this information, predict what you think the story is about.

Read the related article. Was your prediction correct?

RUBRIC

Self-Check

1. I selected a photograph from the newspaper and pasted it on the easel.
2. I studied the photograph carefully and wrote down at least five things that I inferred from the picture.
3. Based on the photo, I made a prediction of what the article is about.
4. I read the article to find out if my prediction was correct.

Clues

Makes me think that . . .

The setting; place _____

Clothing _____

Facial expression(s) _____

Age of characters _____

Action _____

Other objects in the photo _____

Objects in the background _____