DIRECTIONS

Look for examples in the newspaper of grammar and usage rules that you have learned about this year. For example, if you learned how to apply commas to words in a series, look for an example of this rule in the newspaper.

List three different rules in the first column. Next, for each rule, find at least one example of the rule in the newspaper. Cut and paste the examples or write them in the appropriate boxes in the column labeled "Newspaper Model."

In the corresponding boxes in the third column labeled "Applying the Rule," write an original passage that includes correct use of the rule.
